CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. The Cattle will be exposed separately according to the numbers in the catalogue. The Auctioneers reserve the right to refuse any bid without assigning any reason. The highest offer of each lot will be preferred to the purchase – each offer exceeding the former by at least one guinea.

2. Immediately after each purchase is declared, the risk of the animal shall be exclusively with the Buyer, and it declared that until a settlement shall be made in terms of these Conditions the delivery of the animal shall be suspended. The right of the property shall not pass until the price is paid.

3. Immediately after the Sale all lots must be paid for in cash to the Auctioneers. The price being paid, each lot shall be taken away at the Buyer's expense within one day after the sale thereof. Lots shall only be removable from the Auctioneers' possession on a written order from their clerk, and any lot removed in contravention of this condition may be recovered brevi manu by the Auctioneers.

4. Should any buyer fail to pay for and remove his purchase in compliance with the above Conditions, the Auctioneers in their option may either (a) sue the Buyer for the price and interest thereon at the rate of eight per centum per Annum and for the keep of, and any other expense incurred by them in connection with such purchase, or (b) re-sell the Lot either publicly or privately and recover from defaulting Buyer the deficiency (if anyone attending such sale and interest thereon as aforesaid together with the keep and all other expenses. In either case, the Auctioneers shall have the right to sue at their own instance without the consent of the Owner or Consignor, and no defence what ever in such action be competent to the Buyer who shall have recourse against the Owner or Consignor alone.

5. No undertaking of the Auctioneers or their servants to take charge of any animal after the Sale or to forward it to its destination shall be held to impose upon the Auctioneers any legal obligation or vitiate any of the foregoing conditions.

6. The Auctioneer is appointed Judge of the Sale, to whom are hereby submitted all disputes and differences of any kind which may arise at and in relation to the Auction, either between Exposers and Offerers or among other Offerers themselves. His decision shall be final and binding on all parties.

7. Terms of Sale – cash – interest chargeable from date of purchase at 8% over Bank of Scotland base rate. Purchasers shall be governed by and constructed in accordance with the law of Scotland and the non-exclusive jurisdiction of Glasgow Sherriff Court is prorogated to the contract.
