

United Auctions wins Business Leader Award

United Auctions took home the award for Business Leader at Forth Valley Chamber of Commerce Business Awards 2017.

The Chairman of Scotland's leading livestock auctioneers, Neil McLean picked up the award for his 'exceptional vision and leadership qualities within a pioneering business'.

Neil McLean said: 'This is very special. It marks an extraordinary time at United Auctions and it's been a fantastic team effort. There is an amazing team at United Auctions and I must pay tribute to my business partners Robin Tough and David Leggat, to Christopher Sharp for all he has done and to our new MD George Purves, as well as the rest of the staff.'

George Purves, United Auctions' Managing Director, said: "We're delighted that this award recognises the long-term commitment and work of Neil who has, alongside David and Robin, protected and grown the business into a major employer in the Forth Valley."

The Business Awards took place on Thursday 21 September 2017 at Dunblane Hydro.

-Ends-

Photo caption:

Neil McLean with Linda Tinson of Ledingham Chalmers, sponsors of the Business Leader category.